

Cookie Policy

Last updated: 25/09/2025

1. Introduction

This Cookie Policy explains how Lexen Law Ltd uses cookies and similar technologies on our website.

By continuing to browse or use our website, you agree to our use of cookies as described in this policy, unless you choose to disable them.

2. What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files placed on your device (computer, mobile, or tablet) when you visit a website. They help the website function properly and provide information about user activity.

Cookies do not give us access to your device or any personal data stored on it.

3. How We Use Cookies

We use cookies to:

- Ensure the website functions correctly
- Improve user experience and website performance
- Analyse website traffic and usage patterns
- Remember user preferences (such as form inputs or language settings)
- Support security and prevent misuse

4. Types of Cookies We Use

Essential Cookies

These cookies are necessary for the website to function and cannot be switched off. They are usually set in response to actions such as form submissions or navigation.

Performance & Analytics Cookies

These cookies help us understand how visitors interact with the website (e.g., pages visited, time spent). This allows us to improve performance and content.
